Description

The Property comprises a prime retail investment opportunity, situated in the Heart of Newark Market Place and is let to Starbucks at a passing rent of £40,000 pax.

Location

The Property occupies arguably the most prominent and desirable retail position in Newark, benefiting from an 18m frontage directly on to the Market Place.

Newark is an historic and thriving market town in Nottinghamshire. Renowned for its attractive Georgian architecture and rich heritage, Newark offers a vibrant blend of independent retailers, national operators, cafés, and leisure uses, all centered around the bustling Market Place.

The town benefits from strong transport connectivity, with direct rail services to London, Nottingham, and Lincoln, as well as excellent road links via the A1, A46, and A17, making it highly accessible for both commuters and visitors. Newark North Gate station provides a particularly strong draw, with journey times to London King's Cross of approximately 75 minutes.
