Description

Units 12-13 comprise an attractive ground floor retail unit within a characterful historic building. The accommodation extends to approximately 926 sq ft and benefits from frontage onto Buttermarket, making it well suited to retailers seeking strong presence. The unit offers manageable open-plan retail accommodation with access to staff facilities. Furthermore, the property forms part of a wider scheme to enhance the overall trading environment, driving footfall into The Buttermarket.

Location

The property is prominently positioned on Buttermarket/Middlegate in the heart of Newark town centre. This well-established retail location benefits from strong pedestrian footfall and close proximity to national and independent retailers, cafés, and leisure operators.

Newark benefits from excellent transport links, including a mainline railway station with direct services to London King's Cross.
